DEDICATION

We dedicate this, the yearbook of the graduating class of 1952, to Mr. Arnold Chambers in appreciation of his unceasing and untiring efforts toward making this publication a success!

County Superintendent

I wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the yearbook staff, the student body and the faculty of Liberty School in the completion of a successful school year. Your Board of Education and administration is to be commended for their interest shown and work done in the construction of your new building addition, thereby providing adequate facilities for your use. To those graduates who will leave Liberty to enter business, industry or college I wish every measure of success and know that you have appreciated the help of your parents and patrons who have made your education possible.

F. B. Louys

County Superintendent of Schools

Board of Education

Fred Berlin, H. Alan Deeley, Cecil Chubb, Clyde Wheeler - President, E. J. Blott - Acting Clerk, John Elsaesser.

What could we possibly do without the guidance and assistance of the Board of Education? These men, who hold so much concern for the benefit of our students' welfare, work tirelessly to further promote all that is beneficial to our education.

We are indebted to these men and have the greatest appreciation for their services.

Mr. E. J. Blott, Superintendent
Mr. Lee Cauffield, Principal

A teacher built a temple,
With loving and infinite care
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praised the unseething efforts;
None knew of the wondrous plan,
For the temple the teacher built
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

Gone is the builder's temple,
Crumbled into the dust.
Lo, lies each stately pillar—
Food for the consuming rust.
But the temple the teacher built
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Is the child's immortal soul.

Mrs. Helle holds that all-important job of being the school secretary. Her task is great but is being carried out with the utmost in efficiency.

Seniors

Class Officers

Choosing officers to lead the Senior Class takes more than good judgement and forethought alone. It calls for precise choices and we feel that our choices were indeed wise ones.

For the office of president, Jimmy Mealy was chosen—a role not new for him for this was his third term. Jimmy Ochsenhirt was elected as vice-president; Avis Stephenson, secretary, and the numerous duties of treasurer fell on Ruth Heinl.

The amount of work that it takes to present a yearbook is little realized by those who receive them. Were it not for the tireless effort of those who work to print such an annual many memories that everyone holds of their school days would be lost.

Planning, gathering of pictures of the various activities, writing of the editorials, typing of page upon page of names and such, collecting of facts, selling subscriptions, canvassing for ads, and general preparing—all this goes into the making of the Oracle. To these students we owe much gratitude.

Shown here is the business staff very capably managed by Leo Jennings. Several Seniors were a part of this group—Lee Carnahan, Helen Durig, Danny Truhan, Janet Fisher, Jack James, Bob Mock, Jimmy Mealy, Audrey Kruger, Beverly Quinlan, Delores Schaad, Dorothy Shirilla. Included in the subscription staff are: John Brayton, Chuck White, Tom Meikle, Ruth Gough, Carole Scott, Avis Stephenson, Jackie Vehre, and Miss Locke.

The different written selections were contributed by Ruth Heinl, Avis Stephenson, Helen Durig, Janet Fisher, Vivienne Morley, Audrey Fritz, Jim Mealy, Barbara Neville, and Jackie Vehre.

The hours of typing were put in by Ruth Turner, Janet Fisher, and Audrey Fritz. Other staffs included: Henry Bott, Bill Wilson, and Fred Krolopp. Joan Payton acted as editor and supervised the various committees.

We owe a great deal of appreciation and thanks to Mr. Chambers who spent many hours working both at home and school on the writing, planning, and preparing of this, our annual.

PROPHECY

I went to see a man in a long black cape,
I asked to see the future and he pulled aside a drape.
I opened wide my eyes as a big screen came in view,
For there I saw the destiny of the class of '52.

The year is 1962 a calander did say,
Why—our class graduated just 10 years ago today.
There is Jimmy Mealy, who has filled his life's ambition,
Teaching in college, which is a fine position.

A ship of the U. S. Navy passes on the screen,
And there is Henry, chatting with members of his team.
He now is the Rear Admiral, of the whole U. S. fleet,
And Alvin, who's Vice-Admiral, brings some sailors he's to meet.
The reason Bob and Lee are brought up to the admiralty's seat,
Is they've been in "Boot Camp" ten whole years, and always must repeat.

There is Norma, hostess on a large Jet Airliner.
The job that she is doing could be done by none finer.
Beverly and Audrey are her passengers this trip,
They'd rather fly to California, then travel there by ship.

The screen blurs a little, and it's hard to understand.
If Leo is a golfer or just a business man.
Yes, he's a business man, for who else could that be,
But Kay as his very efficient secretary.

There is Jackie married, and what is this I see?
A cozy little group she's added to the family tree.
Barbara and Delores are their education gaining,
As both are going to Europe to further their music training.

Wade, I see, is still driving all those crates of his,
He takes them down to Chuck who really is a whiz.
Chuck has a car yard down in the center of the town,
And people bring their Chevies in to have the trouble found.

To be a Wave has always been Della's great desire,
She is finally nurse aboard a ship, (she never will retire).
Delores Schaad has joined the Wacs, a position long acclaimed,
You can read about her now, for she has a widespread fame.

Audrey is so busy writing up the news,
That when she thinks of "college", she no longer gets the blues.
She used to say she went to college as a sort of spree,
But here she is an editor, without a "college " degree.

I see that Janet Brown has a brand new beauty shop,
She has so many customers she's always on the hop.
Her shop is really beautiful, plush carpets on the floor,
With Kathryn greeting customers as they come in the door.

The screen now skips to Broadway, where music is on top,
Vivienne plays so beautifully, folks hate to have her stop.
Tommy is a singer, for whom the girls all scream,
And Avis is his manager. (That really is a team).

Bill is a very wealthy television tycoon,
He'll find himself in a position to retire very soon.
Arthur, a great artist, who designs all of Bill's sets,
Will find a way to get his share of Bill's money. (On that we'll take bets).

Helen runs a school for the high-class secretary.
When a girl from her school gets a job, you're sure she'll never tary.
Fred Krolopp has a business, where no mistakes occur,
With a secretary like Ruth he just leaves it up to her.

With college far behind her Joan is headed on her career.
She's a great commercial artist for whom other artists cheer
I look for Jimmy Ochsenhirt, and find him among the stars,
For he's head engineer on a rocket ship to Mars.

Danny Truhan is a young but renowned scientist,
He's found a brand new planet and he's named it Libertist.
Upon this planet Don has worked for the past three years,
Don is a grand geologist, on all the well-known spheres.

I see that Ruth Heintz has got her M.R.S. degree,
As everyone will agree, it suits her to a "T".
Many languages were studied by Carole Scott at college,
She now works for the government, because of her high knowledge.

The U. S. has organized a planetary baseball team,
Representatives from Pluto and Saturn are in the scene.
Ruth Gough has given up her desire for a farm,
As Johnny has been signed to pitch with his right arm.

Dorothy Shirilla has a new 25 room house,
I find that it was bought by her ever loving spouse,
Who else would she consider to decorate the place,
But Carol Luther who at decorating really is an ace.

There is Jack the owner of the Ritz Carlton Hotel,
Billingsley decided it was Jack to whom he'd sell.
Martha is the hostess who entertains the guests,
If Jack wants talent in this field, he certainly picked the best.

As Harry Conover's Vice President, Ronald Allen takes the cake,
When Marie applied for a modeling job, Ronald gave her a break.
He likes the job of choosing models as anyone can tell,
The contracts he signs with pretty girls he never would want to sell.

This television screen surely jumps from place to place,
I just think of someone in our class, and I see them face to face.
But, as I look and look and look and look to see what I will be,
The screen becomes a mirror, and I'm looking back at me.

— Janet Fisher —

Hayride

The Hayride we had on one fall night,
Made our class jump with joy;
The hay was soft and the moon was just right,
And for every girl there was a boy.
After the ride we had a small party,
Where hot-dogs and soda-pop were served;
The bon-fire was bright and we all ate quite hearty,
Here's the thanks both our sponsors deserve!

Senior Parent Night

On January 30, the class of 1952 held the annual Senior Parent Night in the cafeteria.

The theme of the evening was "Frosty The Snowman" who decorated everyone's place as a favor.

Members of the faculty, parents, and seniors joined together for an evening of enjoyment.

The delicious dinner was followed with a program. Jim Mealy gave the welcome to the parents. Mrs. Stephenson responded for the parents. Carol Luther acted as mistress of ceremonies and introduced Rev. Woodall who spoke on "The Golden Rule." "The Four Notes" were then called on to render a medley of songs. Joan Payton gave a reading on "The Life of a Negro Slave." Jackie Vehre gave us her idea of a "Men's View of a Woman." Tommy Meikle favored us singing, "Without A Song." The "Four Notes" then led group singing. The evening closed with the seniors singing their class song "We Are The Class of '52."

Class History

Has it been that long? Yes, it was in the fall of 1940 when a group of tiny citizens banded together to establish their own union, A union of hope with the desire to learn. Our preamble was "Together we graduate, divided we flunk!" We were not aware that we would receive a few hard knocks (we have), would learn many, many interesting, amusing, and necessary facts (we did), would share in the sorrow of departing from this only world we knew of late (we do); but, look forward with great anticipation to the new.

We gave birth to a constitution and the first signers were: Janet Brown, Norma Colbrunn, Helen Durig, Janet Fisher, Delores Fleming, Ruth Gough, Ruth Heinl, Kay Kennedy, Martha Kohn, Jimmy Mealy, Jim Ochsenhirt, Beverly Quinlan, Carole Scott, Marie Sheward, Della Shontz, Avis Stephenson, and Bill Wilson. The major political parties were Miss Dunlap, Miss Hoffman, and Miss Bosley.

Remember the unusual act we had in the School Circus? The girls sang lullabies, and the boys took the dolls for a walk in their buggies. We had political strife even in those days. One representative, Carole Scott, always liked to work standing up. And those two girls, Ruth Gough and Ruth Heinl, who had identical pair of boots—the first one leaving always wore the wrong ones.

The second term found two more who wished to sign our pact of loyalty: Ronald Allen and Dan Truhan. Miss Matson and Miss Mattern were elected to lead us. Our second "big chance" in the circus was a song and dance routine in which all the girls wore white dresses. How we were severely scolded for throwing snowballs during the recess!

Our third term in this world that was all so new and wonderful was led by Miss Leah and Miss Smith. They must admit that we gave them a merry chase. Wade Hoover, Arthur Rexroad, and Kathryn Wahl moved into our district and were very eager to tack their names into the growing constitution.

We were very proud of ourselves during the fourth term, for we had grown to the swelling size of twenty-four after quiet Henry Bott and shy (?) Audrey Fritz joined us. Mrs. Probst and Miss Schiller were drafted to teach us.

The fifth term was a dandy one. That was the year we learned fractions and had a Mother's Day party for our moms. We painted those pretty programs with carnations, and everyone took part in the entertainment. That was also the year that a small group led by Jim Mealy presented a talent show almost every day during lunch hour. Leo Jennings, Ruth Turner, and Alvin Wellington joined our merry throng which was headed by Mrs. Kay and Miss Schiller who was re-elected.

By the time we had reached the sixth term we wanted to elect officers. We were grown up, you know; and we thought that we should and could have officers to run the class. We elected officers, but no one remembers who or if any policies were carried out. Again Mrs. Kay with Miss Cianciola taught us the rules. The girls had two baseball teams, and could they battle out the games! Wow!!! Remember the Valentine party? All the girls were hoping to receive a valentine from a certain someone who had newly arrived—John Brayton by name. Audrey Kruger also joined the throng that year.

Changing classes was the "big deal" in the seventh grade. How exciting! At first no one knew where to go, but with Miss Powers and Mrs. Sebastian to give pointers we made the grade. Do you recall the times when Mr. Blott would pitifully explain to visitors, "This is one of those noisy, rainy days." We also won over five new states: Fred Krolopp, Jack James, Bob Mook, Dorothy Shirilla, and Jacquelyn Vehre.

What trying times were yielded by the eighth term!! We had a patriotic party on George Washington's birthday after school. Everything went along rather smoothly. We played wink and nod and basketball. Our lunch was delightful, but the amateur show staged impromptu was ghastly. Especially the morning after when it was discovered that we had accidentally pulled the stage curtain off its trolley. Mrs. Casey and Mrs. Higley, our homeroom guides, vowed never to sponsor us again. We apologized, but they haven't forgotten. Lee Carnahan, Tom Miekke, Vivienne Morley, and Joan Payton also signed up in time to perk up the party.

Well, at last! Now we will get down to brass tacks. We elected officers in our ninth term, and this time we meant business. Those elected were: Avis Stephenson, president; Tom Meikle, vice-president; Joan Payton, secretary; John Brayton, treasurer, and Mr. Griffith, sponsor. Miss Powers and Mr. D'Onofrio took care of our grade cards for us. But what a blow—just when we thought we would be together in the old study hall, our dreams went up in smoke. The other classes had grown so large there wasn't room for us. Delores Schaad and Charles White heard so much of the good work we were doing that they thought it would be to their advantage to join our union. This was also the year that we would choose our elective subjects and become members of the glee club.

The tenth term was not very exciting. For one reason, there weren't any new faces to answer roll call which was called by Miss Lorenz and Mrs. Sebastian. We again elected officers, and they were: Jim Mealy, president; Gay Bentley, vice-president; Chuck White, secretary; Vivienne Morley, treasurer. Mr. Johnson was our sponsor. Defying tradition, we had a dance in our sophomore year which was before unheard. We also originated our class anthem "We Are the Class of '52."

The eleventh term was one never to be forgotten. Juniors at last! We sold everything from pencils to license plates to salt and pepper shakers in order to make enough to take the Seniors to Prom. May 11 finally came; we had reached our goal, and everyone turned out at the Pick-Ohio Hotel in their best finery for the big event. Mr. Geaman and Miss Faust harbored us through that year with Jim Mealy, president; Duke Wellington, vice-president; Helen Durig, secretary; and John Brayton, treasurer. Three people—Jim Mealy, Viv Morley, and Carole Scott were chosen for the National Honor Society by the faculty. We picked our class rings and presented a three-act play entitled "Lights Out." Harry Meikle came but, alas, only to leave at the end of the year to join the navy. What does the navy have that we don't have?

How busy our twelfth term was—so crowded with plans, ideas, and work necessary for the publishing of the yearbook. After being elected president for the third successive term, Jim Mealy said, "Looks like you're stuck with me!" Jim Ochsenhirt assisted him as vice-president. Avis Stephenson typed many a letter as secretary, and Ruth Heintz, treasurer, spent much time on our finances. Mr. Chambers and Miss Locke were called on to shepherd us through a rough term. We were together under Mr. Cauffield's watchful eye, but we surely gave him a merry chase for we were usually anywhere but in the homeroom. Graduation pictures were taken; name cards and invitations were picked out, received, given out, and sent. The office practice class, composed of senior girls, collected news and printed the Liberty Bell with the assistance of Miss Powers. The National Honor Society Banquet was attended by seven members of our class. Three from last year and four new ones: Janet Fisher, Ruth Heintz, Joan Payton, and Jim Ochsenhirt. How nice it was to be guests at prom instead of the hosts. And then our preamble was true—together we graduated.

Last Will and Testament

Carole Scott leaves her position on the National Honor Society to any Junior who deserves it.

Ruth Heinl leaves her rugged individualism to Jeanette Weems.

Jim Ochsenhirt leaves his ability to do experiments in physics (blowing up the school) to Bob Rezanka.

Sadie Hawkins' Dance

They're off!!!

At first the girls were a little bashful, but soon they put this behind them and were grabbing Little Abners right and left.

Everyone danced to records until about ten o'clock. At that time the climax of the evening was reached. Lo, and behold!—who came through the door but Sadie Hawkins herself (Audrey Fritz). She complained so of her prolonged spinsterhood to her daddy (Bob Mook) that he at last had to arrange a race for her so that she might "grab a fella".

Moonbeam McSwine (Norma Colbrunn) was there along with a typical Dog-patcher by the name of "Miss Hap of 1873" (Joan Payton). The other female attendants of the dance wanted to share Sadie's fortune, so a race was scheduled for all.

The boys lined up and fled for their lives at the given signal. At the sound of the second shot the girls literally flew after the "game". Soon a meek following of males dragged in behind the victors, and a special dance was held for them.

Enjoying the privilege of dancing with whomever she chose, Sadie circulated among the boys.

The dance ended on a happy note: the girls had danced with the man of their choice, and the boys were happy with the thought of not having to go through the whole ordeal for another year.

The Liberty band is under the direction of Mr. Herbert Schroeder. Both girls and boys are permitted to enroll in the band; the enrollment is now forty-four. Uniforms are in the school colors: maroon jackets and trousers trimmed in gold, and maroon and gold visor caps.

The band has been active in community affairs and plays for school functions. The big night of the year is the concert for the Mothers' Club sponsored Dads' Night.

Band members have been selected for membership in district, state, and local musical groups.

The majorettes add color to the band also; they are: Florence Walters, Della, Shontz, Darjeel Heffelfinger, Lisa Baumgartner, and Adele Fausten.

The Libetry Glee Club, under the supervision of Mr. Herbert Schroeder, has been carrying on during the last year as it has in the previous years.

The ambition of every student is to someday become a member of the Glee Club. Requirements for the organization are high, and reading ability is asked for as well as a good voice.

Tr-Hi-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is a newly organized club for junior and senior girls. It is a club where the girls write their own constitution, plan their meetings, and meet to share the fellowship and companionship of others. They have had a very enjoyable year and know the members to follow will want to keep it just as it is. At every meeting devotional services were held which really came to mean something to the members.

We owe our thanks to Ruth Turner and Mrs. Hazel Sebastian for following through mere thoughts of a Tri-Hi-Y Club and really getting busy and creating this ideal club for junior and senior girls.

Hi-Y

Last year the Liberty Hi-Y began to appear on the pages of our school history.

Mr. Walter Geaman, the first advisor, was very instrumental in aiding the club over many rough spots. Mr. Geaman left Liberty to enter industry, and Mr. Arnold Chambers was invited to become the new advisor.

The club has a variety of activities which includes sports, dances, outings, and a student city government.

Neophytes are chosen by vote, and all members must retain scholastic standards set by the club constitution and the State and National Hi-Y organization.

The Thespian Club

The Dramatics Club was started in 1950 with Mr. Arnold Chambers as advisor and now has about 80 members. The club's chief functions are to show students how to choose plays, to work with stage properties, and to present the plays in the best manner possible. One evening a year is set aside so that the Dramatics Club can present its plays.

The club took a field trip to Kent on January 26. The Northeastern Ohio Drama Clinic of 1952 was held in the Administration Building and the Union Building. At 9:30 they attended a general meeting which was followed by two lectures on "Producing Classics in High School" by R. C. Hunter and "Application of Beards." "The Passing of Cho-Chow" by Elmer Rice was a one-act comedy produced in "arena-style." Ron Bacon was the director.

Frederick A. Beurki spoke on "How to Produce Plays in High School without Money." At 2:00 they saw the superb play MEDEA directed by G. Harry Wright. The technical director was Michael Dubetz.

MEDEA, Euripides' masterpiece and one of the greatest of all Greek tragedies, was first produced at the Festival of Dionysus in Athens in the year, 431 B.C. This violent tale of the betrayed wife who murdered her faithless husband's new bride and then completed her vengeance by hacking to death his children was too much for the Athenian audience of its day. The point of view was too modern and the notion that women and foreigners had rights that could be fought for was considered dangerous. MEDEA is now considered one of the most powerful of all the Greek tragedies on the stage.

Latin Club

The Latin Club was formed in 1951 under the advisory of Mrs. Lulu Teeter.

Meetings are held on the last Monday of every month and include programs for the entertainment of the members. The programs are always associated with the life and times of the Romans.

The club has a motto: "Make Haste Slowly." The members wear pins bearing the club's name on the shield and the year 1951 on the guard.

Le Circle Francais

The club name in English means, French Circle. Le Circle Francais was started this year by Mrs. Balascoe for members of the French class.

Le Circle Francais meets on the second and fourth Friday of each month. The purpose of these meetings is to present programs about different French customs. The group is now able to sing many songs in French and know enough about French foods to enable them to read a French menu.

The Laboratory

The new lab is used to its best advantage by Mr. Klimko and his very willing pupils. A score of equipment has been purchased and everything is new, shiny, and just raring to be experimented with, and so far there have been no objections on the part of the assistants. All the supplies are modern and up-to-date, and it seems to be quite a thrill to experiment with them.

The Library

The library is a popular place in the halls of L.H.S. With about three-thousand books included in the library and class libraries, Mrs. Teeter and her assistants are kept busy by the demands and wishes of the students. The number of books is continually growing. A variety in the types of books offered keeps most of the book-seekers contented and happy. Regardless of what you might want in the literary field our library has it—mystery, adventure, biography, science, philosophy, anything!

THE ISSUE FOR LIBERTY

For many years Liberty High students have been struggling along using extremely inadequate facilities in the gym. There was a time then the gym was the best in the surrounding area, but that was a good many years ago. Our gym has no facilities except for basketball and even for that the ceiling is much too low.

Our school enrollment has been increasing rapidly for the past six years. Even though we have enough room ities. This will be an important issue to the future of Liberty School's standing among the other schools.

The G.A.A. has been a growing organization since it was originated nine years ago.

This year the club's affairs began with the initiation of the Freshman girls. A swimmingparty was a favorite activity of the year for the members. As the year progressed, bowling was added to the list of sports activities which includes volley-ball, basketball, and baseball.

The G.A.A. Basketball Team competes with teams of surrounding schools. Through all these sports the members of this organization hope not only to win awards but seek to learn the meaning of good sportsmanship.

As the year came to a close the G.A.A. sponsored the annual May Queen Dance. All these accomplishments have been achieved with the aid of their capable adviser, Miss Locke.

Student Council

A council is usually an organization that meets to consider questions of procedure and advises on the best course of action. The Liberty Student Council, founded in 1951, is such an organization. Questions that are not fully answered by the local Board of Education and the school faculty are subjects for council discussion.

It is the desire of the school officials to hear the comments of young people on how the school may be improved. Students often give very constructive suggestions. The lunch hour dancing program has been a part of the current council program.

Forensic Team

At the beginning of the school year the majority of the speech students had never given a speech before a public audience.

Many opportunities were given for these people to overcome this inexperience. Practice debate tournaments and other programs were held which showed the many abilities of the new members.

On January 9, the speech team presented a program for the Mothers' Club. Norma Colbrunn, Joan Payton, Barbara Neville, Martha Kohn, Audrey Fritz, John Brayton, Leo Jennings, Jimmy Mealy, and Bill Wilson presented the program for the mothers' entertainment and enjoyment.

At a debate tournament held at Niles High School on February 16, Jimmy Mealy, Audrey Fritz, Shirlee Scala, and Athena Costas represented Liberty.

SOCIETY

National Honor Society

Election into the National Honor Society is the highest honor a student can receive. Not only high scholarship is necessary, but a student must have good character, a record of service in school, at home, and in the community, and show outstanding ability in leadership.

Membership in this organization inspires students to improve their scholarship, to find more and better opportunities for service, and to promote leadership in all activities of the school and community.

Now during these troubled times, it is most urgent that there be persons who can be relied upon to perform duties that will help toward everlasting peace. The National Honor Society lays a firm foundation for the future leaders of our great country.

Bus Patrol

Drivers:

Mr. Gray, Mr. Richards, Mr. Scott, Mr. Sinner, Mr. Kennedy, Mrs. Collins, Mr. Gautschi.

Patrolmen:

Peggy Hosterman, Judy Gowing, Frank Fiest, Bobby Berlin, Bobby Wolfe, Bobby Evans, George King, Jimmy Deeley, Richard Miller, Jack Emery, Bartara Daugherty, Judy Suender, Marquitta Duerden, Elaine Kost, Rosalind Turello, Norma Frew, Jean Sund, Beverly Neuder.

Our Bus Patrol this year was re-organized to meet the safety needs and the fast growing population of our elementary and high schools.

The Bus Patrol this year was turned over to the direction of two faculty mem-bers. Mr. Chambers is the sponsor and director of the Bus Patrol for the high school, and Mr. G. Prokop for the grade school.

With our two bus loads and nine busses, we have an average of 36 Bus Pa-trolmen. Carole Scott is Lieutenant, and Fred Krolopp, Captain on the first load. Betty Ours is Lieutenant, and Carol Luther, Captain on the second load.

The duty of the Bus Patrolmen is to look after the safety of the children go-ing to and coming from school. All violators of the bus rules are given to the cap-tains together with their violation, grade, and bus number. These are then turned over to the sponsors, who in turn take disciplinary action against the violator.

Mothers' Club

The Mothers' Club is headed by Mrs. Joe A. Horn who acts as president; Mrs. L. H. Gowing, vice-president; Mrs. Clyde Wheeler, secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Hunter who holds the office of treasurer.

The meetings are held on the second Thursday of every month; programs are put on by several sections or groups of the school such as grade school operettas, Forsensics' programs, and musical entertainment for the enjoyment of the mothers.

Committees hold public dances, drives, and parties so that they might raise money for the welfare of the school and other organizations. Through their generosity we now have a tape recorder, equipment for audio-visual aid, and recreational supplies for the grade school. We are grateful for the assistance and interest shown our students by such a praiseworthy organization.

Jr. Sr. Prom

NEWS FLASH ! ! ! — JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM OF '51 IS A SMASH SUCCESS

Youngstown, Friday, May 11, 1951—Tonight at the Pick Ohio Hotel ballroom, here in Youngstown, the Junior-Senior Prom of 1951 was proclaimed a smash success by everyone attending!

The prom, following a Hawaiian theme, was colorfully decorated with different shade and hues of pink, blue, yellow, and green. Each table was centered with a miniature Hawaiian village and flowers. The speakers table was adorned with flowers spread about, and centered with a beautiful bouquet of lavender iris and yellow tea roses.

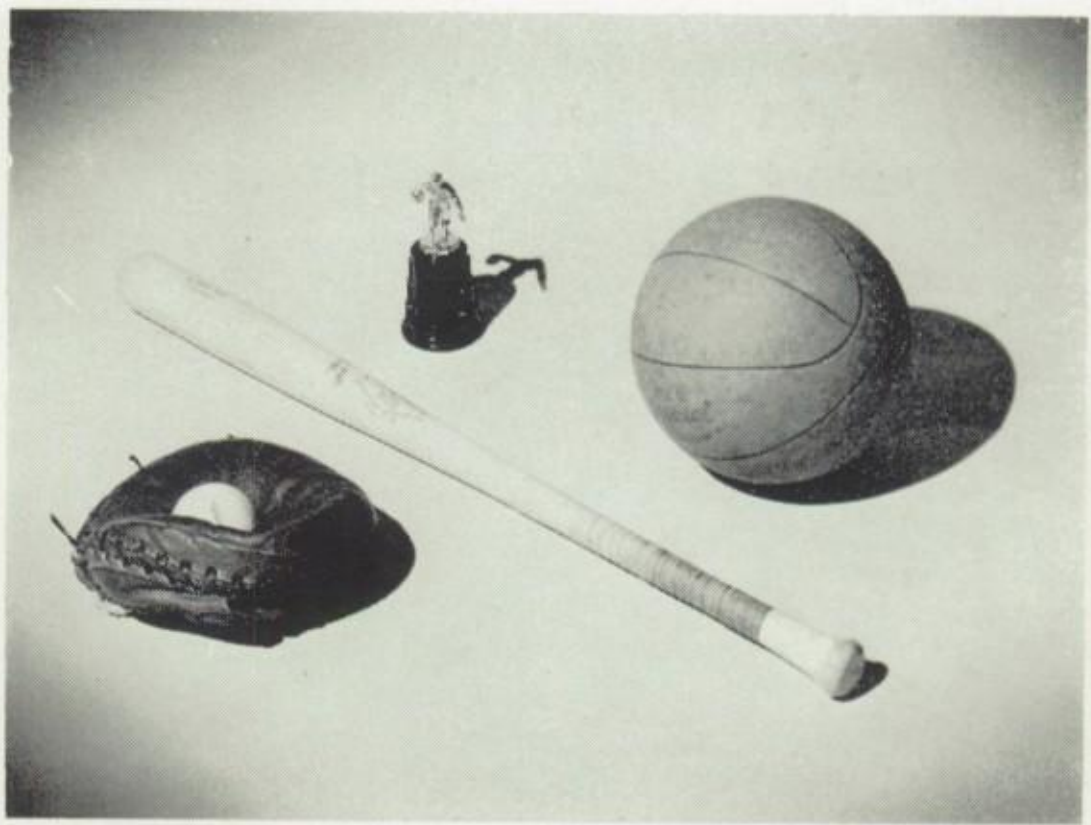

The prom was initiated by an excellent dinner with Hawaiian music playing throughout. There was a splendid after dinner program consisting of several speeches and musical entertainment.

At nine o'clock dancing commenced with the orchestra of Herb McPherson furnishing the music. Outside guests were admitted to the dance by an invitation given to them by a member of either the Junior or Senior class. This arrangement has proven to be extremely satisfactory.

Looking over the dance floor this reporter found the scene to be a panorama of color and gaiety. In every direction one could see swirling net gowns of every conceivable color and design crowned by laughter and a beautiful smile, set off by sparkling rhinestones reflecting the light of cut glass chandeliers.

As the magic hour of midnight arrived all too soon, the dreamy music slowly faded away into blue oblivion as moonbeams flooded the ballroom floor. The dancing feet ceased, and the swirling skirts calmed but smiles remained on many faces and eyes sparkled as all agreed they had a truly wonderful time.

Athletics

Cheerleaders

This year, the cheerleaders were picked by the Student Council. Each member of the student council cast a ballot for his choice. There are five varsity cheerleaders and four reserves. It is their job to get the school's co-operation and support for the team.

CHEERLEADERS

The girls who give our cheers
Are really without peers
They give their time and steam
To cheer and help our team.
The girls who lead our varsity team,
Are, without a doubt, right on the beam.
The girls who cheer the reserve
Are always ready to serve.
All and all with smiles so bright
They urge our team to fight, fight, fight.

Eighth and Ninth Grade Basketball Team

Bobby Banner, Earl Bickell, Howie Ridge, Fred Smith, Ronnie Marinelli, Raymond Dressel, Joe Horn, Kenneth, Broome, Jimmy Deeley, Jimmy Pasquine.
Bill Boye, Bill Costas, Bob Stephenson, Jerry Glass, Arthur Carnahan, Buzzy Bickell.

The eighth grade team has had a successful season. They won six games out of seven played. With continued coaching they'll soon rank among the top teams.

Next year's reserve team, the ninth graders, had high spirits and lots of practice but didn't make out so well. In the nine games played they won only one, but are sure to chalk up more wins and fewer losses in years to come.

Seventh Grade Basketball Team

The seventh grade basketball team under the coaching of Mr. George Prokop has had an excellent season. As this book goes to press they have already won five games out of five . . . perfect score.

Their practices are held after school and on Saturday afternoons. The possibilities for their future seems to talk for itself with such a magnificent record.

The Juniors

The Junior Class has been so busy
—The activities kept them in a “tizzy,”
Selling pep shirts, candy, and cards
Made the whole class work pretty hard.
Having concessions at the games
Was one of the class’s greatest fames.
The dances were far from being a bore—
In fact, the students clamored for more.
Looking into the crystal ball,
We see their greatest year of all
The one they’ll all greet with a cheer— ..
And that, of course, is: Their Senior Year!

Junior Class Play

Can you imagine a young man over twenty-one, who has never seen or talked to a girl? Well, Romeo Montague was in that predicament. His parents died when he was a child and his uncle, a scientist, took him into the wilds of Canada, one hundred miles from nowhere, where he reared and educated the boy. Larry McNeil and Rex Simonds, two young Americans on a hunting trip, ran across Romeo just after his uncle had died and asked him to visit them in the States. To keep him out of trouble on the trip they arranged for an airplane to bring him to the airport and a taxi to bring him to visit home, so the young man arrived at the McNeil establishment still unacquainted with women. BUT—in the McNeil household were Connie and Billie, Larry's sisters, two young ladies who were anything but shrinking violets. There was also a Spanish maid, La Reina, and Orpha, the girl Larry expected to marry, to say nothing of young and vivacious Aunt Rachel. Nor can we overlook the Amazon Queen of the furniture movers and her four helpers who came to repossess the McNeil furniture at the most inopportune times. Romeo was young, handsome, and unspoiled, and all the women fell for him and how! Along with Romeo's problem of adjusting himself to this altered condition in life, Larry was having trouble collecting his inheritance, which came to him solely on condition that he bring before the world some noted scientific discovery and Larry was about as much of a scientist as Romeo was a ladies' man. There was also the problem of the furniture on which the McNeils owed some money, as well as a smashed auto which Rex borrowed and wrecked. All these problems piled together kept the McNeil home in an uproar for days, when, of all people, Romeo adjusted them.

The Sophomores

The Sophomores started out this year
With a hayride at Banner's and lots of good cheer
Everybody had a good time,
And the refreshments were simply divine.
Next, a Christmas party was planned,
But the winter weather took a hand.
So we're looking ahead to '52
With prospects of many good times in view.

CONGRATULATIONS

Class of "52"

I wish to express my sincere thanks for allowing me to make the photographs for your 1952 yearbook.

It is my sincere wish that as you leave High School and go out into a life that will be new and different in many ways, that you will always have the best of everything that life has to offer.

Your senior class photographer,
Bill Abey

Congratulations, Class of 1952!

IF yours were the choice . . . the impossible choice . . . of naming the date in history when you would want most to live — we're betting you'd choose tomorrow, with all of it's challenge and promise! And so would we . . . Because history never knew a more interesting era! Wondering what waits to be discovered just outside the classroom door? Well we're pretty sure that the degree in which your dreams will all come true depends on most completely upon your own determination! First you'd better build your ladder to the stars and then, with all the Faith and Hope and Trust that true success requires . . . climb to the very top! And our best wishes will go with you all the way.
